BOOKING CONDITIONS OF TEAM KILIMANJARO EXPEDITIONS

Before completing the Registration Form and signing the Declaration, please ensure that you have read and understood the general information contained in our website pertaining to arrangements on our expeditions and all other applicable travel information. The outline itineraries on the website are to be understood as an indication of what each expedition team should accomplish and not as a contractual obligation on our part.

Your contract is made with Exposure (Events Organisers) of which Team Kilimanjaro is a trading name. These booking conditions have been formulated as a result of our responsibilities under law. They do not affect your statutory rights. Team Kilimanjaro Expeditions are the concept of, and will be administered by Exposure of 5 Church Walk, Bideford, Devon, EX39 2BP, United Kingdom. Team Kilimanjaro accept bookings subject to your agreeing the conditions set out below:

1. YOUR CONTRACT: When you register for the expedition you undertake that you accept, and have the authority to accept, these booking conditions. A contract will exist when we issue you with a receipt for your Booking Deposit. These Booking Conditions, in conjunction with the information set out in the itinerary, form the entire agreement between ourselves and yourself. No employee of Team Kilimanjaro other than a director has the authority to vary or omit any of these terms or promise any discount or refund.

2. PARTICIPATION: You need to be a minimum of 18 years old, in suitable physical condition to undertake the expedition as set out in the itinerary and be fully aware of the possible risks inherent in adventure travel. The whole philosophy of this type of adventure travel is one which allows alternatives and a substantial degree of on-tour flexibility. The outline itineraries given for each expedition must therefore be taken as an indication of what each group should accomplish and not as a contractual obligation on our part. It is a fundamental condition of joining any Team Kilimanjaro expedition that you accept this flexibility, and acknowledge that delays and alterations and their results are possible. Places are subject to availability and will be allocated on a first come, first served basis for those who properly complete the registration formalities.

Bookings are non-transferable. We reserve the right on reasonable grounds to decline your request to participate in the expedition. Your entitlement to participate depends on our being satisfied that there are no circumstances under which we ought properly to decline your participation in the expedition. Our decision on your participation shall be final and binding. In any circumstances where we decide that you may not participate in the expedition your registration fee and insurance premium will be refunded to you in full.

You must comply with the laws and regulations of the countries visited and comply with all reasonable instructions of the expedition leader relating to the safety and organisation of the expedition. If in our opinion, any airline pilot, accommodation manager or other person in authority feels that you are behaving in such a manner as to cause danger, distress or annoyance to others or cause damage to property, your expedition arrangements may be terminated by us or the supplier concerned. In such an event, we shall have no liability to you and will not be responsible for making any refunds, paying any compensation or meeting any costs or expenses you incur as a result. Furthermore, you must meet any expenses we incur as a result of your behaviour.

You agree that the information you provide to us is accurate and that we may pass all necessary and relevant information which we hold to our agents for the purpose of marketing and administering this expedition. We shall not subject any personal data about you to any third party for processing, except as may be required for the purposes of the expedition. In particular, we shall not make use of such personal data for promoting or marketing our own services (other than those applicable to the expedition) or other events and shall not transfer such personal data to any third party except as may be necessary for the purposes of the expedition. You agree that any photography taken prior to, during, or after the expedition, which may include you in it, may be used in publicity material connected with Team Kilimanjaro, and that Exposure will retain all rights, title and interest in such photography made by Team Kilimanjaro including but not limited to any royalties, proceeds, or other benefits derived from such material.

You agree to pay the booking deposit of £75 on registering, and must pay the full outstanding balance at least six weeks prior to the departure date of your expedition.

You are not considered registered with us until such time as we receive cleared funds in respect of the booking deposit and the balance of your expedition costs, (the insurance premium is included in the expedition cost). The expedition is based on using twin-share accommodation (where applicable). If joining an expedition alone, you will be partnered with another member of the same sex to share accommodation.

Medical Treatment: It is a condition of joining an expedition that in cases of emergency we have your authority to arrange any necessary medical or surgical treatments and to sign any required form of consent on your behalf.

3. BALANCE OF PAYMENT: Once we receive your outstanding expedition costs balance there is no additional payment required from you to us, other than for extending your expedition, upgrading services, etc. We reserve the right to treat any arrangements as being cancelled by you if such payment is not received on time.

The expedition is not a Package Tour, and while Team Kilimanjaro are the Event Organisers for the expedition and do not act as travel agents, we agree to procurement of flights, where requested, to facilitate optimal co-ordination of travel timings.

Should you request Team Kilimanjaro to procure flights on your behalf from an independent ATOL-bonded UK travel agent we will invoice you for the flight fare with no additional agent's or handling fees added. Alternatively, should you elect to procure flights yourself you agree to provide confirmation of ticket purchase to us. In the event of your procuring your own flights you agree to arrive at a rendezvous location in Arusha, Tanzania no later than the time agreed with us in advance.

4. THE EFFECT OF PRICE INCREASES: The booking deposit is fixed at the time of registration and will not be subject to surcharges (unless payment is by credit or debit card). Team Kilimanjaro are not agents for the sale of flights and are unable to guarantee stability of fares that they procure. Typical lowest flight fares as quoted on our website were correct to within 5% at time of first publication. Fares are subject to changes in costs by airlines; government action including but not limited to new or increased taxes such as VAT; changes in embarkation or disembarkation fees and airport taxes; fluctuations in applicable exchange rates; rising oil prices; and increased security measures in response to acts of terrorism. Under such circumstances, we cannot guarantee procurement of flight fares equal to estimates quoted.

5. AMENDING OR CANCELLING YOUR PARTICIPATION: In the event that you wish to change a booking previously confirmed by us in writing (such as extending your return date), we will endeavour to assist you. Date changes often attract penalties with airlines, hotels and land travel organisers. Amendments will therefore normally incur an administrative fee of around £50 plus the cost of additional arrangements requested by you to be made. All changes will be subject to availability. You will also be responsible for any unrecoverable charges or expenses in making such amendments (i.e. lost deposits on flights and hotels). If the expedition you wish to transfer to has a higher registration fee, insurance premium, minimum sponsorship level, etc., you will be responsible for paying the difference.

If you wish to defer your return flight date, and we are able to arrange it, an administration fee of £50 will be applied. Further, if the change of date results in a more expensive ticket, you will be required to pay the difference. You will not be able to amend the outward date, only the return date. Amendment requests should be made by e-mail to info@teamkilimanjaro.com or by post. You should request with your preferred return date two additional alternative dates, in the event that your first choice is unavailable. If we cannot confirm your requested change of return date, or if the resultant fare increases by £50 or more and you choose not to accept the flight, we will not charge you the administration fee.

NB: Once we request a change, if the seat is available, the airline will change the details immediately. If you change your mind once new details have been issued by the airline you may have forfeited your original seat with the main group. Certain amendments (such as postponing your participation to a later departure) made by you within eight weeks of departure will be treated as cancellations and re-bookings. The normal cancellation charges will apply, i.e. your booking deposit will be retained, with cancellation costs being debited from this amount. All amendments and cancellations should be confirmed to us in writing.

Cancellations are only effective from the day that they are received by us. If requesting a cancellation by post you agree to use Royal Mail's Recorded Delivery service.

Your insurance policy may refund certain of your costs if cancellation is due to certain factors specified in the policy. Late cancellations will also incur the following charges:

Cancellations made 43 days or more before departure: forfeiture of Booking Deposit,
42-29 days before departure: 50% of tour cost,
28-15 days before departure: 75% of tour cost,
14 or fewer days before departure: 100% of tour cost.

Most participants complete the expedition they undertake. However, if you are obliged to curtail your participation due to ill-health or any other reason, there will be no refund of National Park fees, flight or accommodation costs. Any additional accommodation and/or transfer fees, flight and accommodation costs are your responsibility.

6. IF WE AMEND THE ITINERARY: The itineraries and other details are published in good faith as statements of intention only, and reasonable changes to the itinerary, vehicle and equipment use, may be made where deemed necessary or advisable. In an adventure challenge the itinerary may be and often is changed at short notice due to changing weather patterns, wildlife movements, and other factors beyond our control.

While we will make all proper and reasonable efforts to do so, we do not guarantee that we will adhere to the published itinerary and we therefore reserve the right to amend the expedition itinerary as and when it may become necessary to do so. We will endeavour to notify you of any minor amendments that are decided prior to the expedition's departure. However, we are not obliged to do so, nor are we bound to pay any compensation that may be claimed to result from such changes. We are not liable for any penalty charges associated with "supersaver" type connecting rail or air fares, in the event of a change to a tour departure date, time, or airport departure venue. Flight timings and carriers are subject to change and all details supplied to you are for guidance only. Confirmed details will be those shown on your ticket. Should a material change become necessary we will inform you as soon as reasonably possible. You may decide whether or not to accept the change although you must let us know within seven days. A material change includes one made to your travel arrangements before departure involving change of departure or arrival airport (other than between airports within the same city airport system) or if outward or return flights are re-scheduled by more than 24 hours. If we alter the airline, aircraft type operating your flight or routing this is not a material change and we will be under no obligation to notify you of any such change in advance. If you do not wish to accept a material change, provided it does not arise from circumstances constituting Force Majeure, we will give you a full refund of your booking deposit minus any insurance premium we have paid on your behalf.

We do not control management of your proposed accommodation venue. It is therefore possible we may be advised the reserved accommodation may not be suitable or available to you upon arrival.

Should this occur, we will endeavour to provide accommodation of at least the same standard in the same area. If we are required to amend the itinerary during the expedition, the expedition leader will arrange the best alternative. This decision will rest solely on the expedition leader. The decision of the expedition leader is final on all matters.

Force Majeure: we are not responsible for changes which arise as a result of situations outside of our control such as technical or maintenance problems with means of transportation, changes imposed by re-scheduling or cancellation of flights by an airline or main charter, war or threat of war, civil strife, industrial disputes, natural disasters, unusually adverse weather, bureaucratic obstacles or terrorist activity.

7. IF WE CANCEL THE EXPEDITION: We reserve the right in any circumstance to cancel the expedition. However, in no case will we cancel your expedition less than six weeks before the scheduled departure date unless for reasons beyond our control. If we have to cancel your expedition before the date of departure (other than where Force Majeure or paragraph 6 apply) we will offer you either (i) an alternative expedition of comparable type, though if the alternative offered is at additional cost, the difference will be payable by you, or (ii) a full refund of your booking deposit. In either case the booking deposit will be the only recompense due to you. In exceptional circumstances where we find there is less than the minimum number of participants required to operate the expedition, we reserve the right to cancel the expedition, and will not do so later than six weeks prior to the expedition departure date. In these exceptional circumstances, the booking deposit (and balance if applicable) will be returned to you in full along with any proportion of insurance premium returned to us at the discretion of our insurance company. We will not be liable to you for any incidental expenses that you may have incurred as a result of your booking, such as visas, vaccinations and non-refundable connecting flights.

8. OUR LIABILITY: Clients, together with their personal property including baggage, are at all times solely at their own risk. We accept responsibility for the negligent acts and/or omissions of our employees, agents, sub-contractors and suppliers while acting within the scope of, or in the course of, their employment with us and for any deficiencies in the services we are contractually obliged to provide, or the failure of such services in reaching a reasonable standard. In any such case our liability shall be limited to a maximum of twice your personal contribution towards the original expedition cost.

We do not accept responsibility in respect of death, bodily injury or illness of any person participating in one of our expeditions as a result of (but not limited to) physical exertion for which a participant has not prepared; forces of nature; consumption of alcoholic beverages; civil unrest; terrorism; breakdown of equipment; high altitude; lack of or limited access to medical attention in remote locations; and the adequacy of medical attention once provided. We do not accept responsibility in respect of death, bodily injury or illness of any person participating in one of our expeditions except when caused by the negligent acts and/or omissions of our employees, agents, subcontractors or suppliers while acting within the scope of, or in the course of, their employment, agency, contract of supply or sub-contract although, where the services in question consist of carriage by air, sea or rail, or the provision of accommodation, the limit of our liability shall be as provided for under applicable law and/or international convention. We do not accept any responsibility for disruption, inconvenience, cancellation or alteration to holidays due to problems caused directly or indirectly by computer failure, where these problems are not the result of our negligence or the fault of our suppliers, or could have not have been avoided even though all reasonable care had been taken.

If you book any additional activities locally which are not a part of the original expedition itinerary, your contract is with the local company operating the activity and we have no liability or responsibility for the operation of that activity.

9. DOCUMENTATION: The Team Kilimanjaro website provides general information about passport and visa requirements, vaccination and health requirements, arrangements for security of monies paid (where applicable) for your repatriation in the event of our insolvency, and the times and places of intermediate stops and transport connections and accommodation details. You must ensure that your travel documents, full ten-year passport (with a minimum of six months validity at the end of the expedition), visas, and vaccination certificates are in order. We are able to give general advice on these matters but such requirements are subject to change and we cannot be held responsible if you do not verify current requirements prior to your departure. If failure to obtain any such documents results in fines, surcharges or other financial penalty being imposed upon us then you agree to reimburse us accordingly. We are not liable to you for any costs, expenses or other sums incurred by you as a consequence of a refusal to allow you into any country on the itinerary as a result of insufficient time on your passport or otherwise. The information in this agreement, and in the documents supplied to you accompanying this agreement, is correct at the date of publication, and is given in good faith but without responsibility on the part of Team Kilimanjaro. Where applicable, you should check with the relevant authority the current requirements prior to your expedition.

10. CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE / ACCOMMODATION: We are neither a carrier nor a provider of accommodation. Each journey (whether undertaken or not) by land, sea or air is governed by the conditions of the carrier undertaking to provide that carriage. Some of these conditions limit or exclude liability and are often the subject of international agreements. Copies of applicable conditions are available for inspection at the offices of the carrier concerned. As all of our itineraries are different, airlines used differ with each itinerary. In prepared itineraries, transport timings are provided by the carrier concerned and are subject to such matters as weather conditions, maintenance requirements, the ability of passengers to check-in on time and, in the case of flights, to air traffic control restrictions. Accordingly, the times of flights and other forms of transport are estimates only and cannot be guaranteed. Internal flights are particularly vulnerable to change. We have no control and accept no liability whatsoever for cancellations and delays which are subject to operational decisions by airlines and/or traffic control authorities.

You are responsible for checking-in for flights at the correct time and for presenting yourself to take up all pre-booked components of your expe dition. If flight delays mean that any additional transfers are required to enable you to join the group, these costs must be met immediately by you and should later be reclaimed under your insurance policy if applicable. If you are joining the tour locally (i.e. the country in which the expedition will take place) our responsibility does not commence until the appointed time at the designated meeting point. No credit or refunds will be given if you fail to take up any component of your expedition, or if you lose, mislay or destroy any travel documents. The availability or provision of accommodation is subject to the 'house rules' of the accommodation or site. This expedition will take place in a country where travel and accommodation standards are less developed than you may be used to in the UK. Standards of accommodation will vary from extremely basic to adequate and, in some locations, you may have to do without services elsewhere considered essential.

11. INSURANCE: Appropriate travel insurance cover is compulsory if you wish to participate in the expedition.

If so instructed we will arrange low-cost travel insurance cover for your expedition with Insure & Go Insurance Services Ltd, Warners Mill, Silks Way, Braintree, Essex, CM7 3GB. This insurance covers medical (emergency, evacuation and repatriation) arrangements, cancellation and curtailment of the expedition and, more specifically, cover for the adventurous activities undertaken on this expedition. The policy does not cover compensation claims relating to Personal Liability or Personal Accident claims arising above 2,000m altitude.

Whilst we have endeavoured to review the arranged travel insurance policy for relevance of expedition-specific cover, it is not possible to anticipate every conceivable risk or accident that may occur on an adventurous expedition. In addition, no insurance policy covers every possible accident that may arise. You are therefore requested to examine for yourself the wording of the policy that we arrange.

You are at liberty to purchase your own cover from an insurance company of your choice should you wish. The policy we obtain covers UK and Irish citizens, between the ages of 18 and 69 (who have been resident in the UK for the last 12 months). If you are aged 70 or over, there may be an additional premium payable for which you will be responsible. All prices payable include UK Government Insurance Premium Tax of 17.5%. If you are not resident in the UK or Ireland, or wish for any other reason to obtain your own policy you will need to purchase travel insurance which provides at least the same level of cover as the policy we arrange.

If you extend your return flight, you will also need to ensure that your travel insurance is extended to cover you for the full duration. You should put in writing a request to Team Kilimanjaro to make the necessary arrangements on your behalf. If an additional premium is required, you will be notified. Team Kilimanjaro are not Agents for any insurers.

12. RISKS: An adventurous challenge is never without risks. You must be adequately fit to cover the requisite distances safely, and agree to undertake an appropriate fitness program - advice for which may be sought from us. You therefore participate entirely at your own risk and agree to indemnify Team Kilimanjaro, Exposure, our employees, agents, sub-contractors and suppliers against claims for loss or damage to personal property or for loss or consequential losses or claims through your participation in this expedition arising from your own actions. You accept the risk that you will be able to satisfy Immigration, Customs and other authorities in order to be granted lawful access into all countries on the itinerary. If you are refused access, we do not accept liability for any costs and expenses you incur in resolving your difficulties, or in returning to the UK. We will give such assistance as we can in the circumstances without any obligation upon us to do so and without any liability for our actions on your behalf. Team Kilimanjaro will not pay any ransom or make any payments in order to secure the release of hostages. Should you mount a bicycle within the period covered by the insurance we arrange, you agree to wear a helmet meeting ANSI standards when riding, and to wear all other such safety clothing or equipment as may be required by the laws of the country concerned, or under the rules and regulations of any local service provider of any activity undertaken by you. If participating in water-based activities you verify that you are able to swim 50 metres while fully clothed.

13. COMPLAINTS: We will do our utmost to ensure that your travel arrangements run as planned. However, if you have a complaint arising out of what we have agreed to provide for you, please let us know at the earliest opportunity, if necessary by calling our UK office from wherever you may be and reversing charges. If a problem arises during the expedition, you should advise the expedition leader or service supplier immediately who will endeavour to put things right. If your complaint cannot be resolved locally you agree to advise us in writing within 28 days of returning to the UK. Your letter will be given prompt attention. If you fail to follow this procedure we cannot accept responsibility, as we may then have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate the matter and rectify any problem.

Your failure to file a complaint at the earliest appropriate opportunity may forfeit your right to claim compensation from Team Kilimanjaro. Please note that in any event any compensation payable for claims against us, other than compensation for personal injuries, will not exceed three times the booking deposit. Any dispute or difference between the parties arising out of or in connection with this agreement shall first be referred to mediation in accordance with the mediation procedures of the ADR Group of Grove House, Grove Road, Redland, Bristol, BS6 6UL. The mediator shall be agreed upon by the parties and failing such agreement within fifteen days of one party requesting the appointment of a mediator and providing their suggestion thereof, the mediator shall be appointed by the then President of the Law Society of England and Wales. Unless agreed otherwise, the parties shall share equally the costs of the mediation. If the dispute is not resolved by mediation within sixty days, or if one of the parties will not participate in the mediation, the dispute shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the English Courts.

14. APPLICABLE LAW: The contract between us, and these booking conditions, are governed by and construed in accordance with English Law. Both parties agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts. In the event that any clause or provision of these Booking Conditions shall be held to be invalid, the invalidity of such clause or provision shall not otherwise affect the remaining provisions of this contract, which shall continue and be enforceable. You confirm your understanding of these Booking Conditions by signing the Declaration on the Registration Form.

15. MINIMUM PARTICIPATION: Each phase of any scheduled expedition will require a minimum participation of two persons in order to proceed. The participant accepts responsibility to confirm from Team Kilimanjaro that all phases for which the participant has submitted a booking have reached minimum subscription prior to the participant purchasing their flights. If payment for any phase that is subsequently withdrawn has already been made a full refund for this phase will be given. In some circumstances if a single-person premium is paid a phase July proceed without there being the minimum subscription. The participant should enquire by e-mail if wishing to conduct a phase without other subscribers participating.
